Capital Magazine Winners of the Best Employers in France:

Autodistribution voted best employer in the Wholesale Trade category

Arcueil, April 3, 2025

For the past 10 years, the business magazine Capital has joined forces with the Statista Institute to publish the list of the “Best Employers 2025 in France” for companies with more than 500 employees. This year again, as part of a completely anonymous and independent online survey conducted this fall, 20,000 employees were asked about dozens of different HR criteria (salaries, benefits, atmosphere, careers, etc.).

For the 10th consecutive year, Autodistribution is among the top-ranked companies on this list. For 2025, the company reached 7th position among 105 companies analyzed in the “Wholesale” category, thus confirming its commitment to its employees.

This Capital magazine award recognizes Autodistribution's strong commitments in terms of human resources and social responsibility, confirming its attractiveness as a benchmark employer in the automotive aftermarket sector.
