Parts Holding Europe (PHE) announces the appointment of Laurent Gasse as Group Human Resources Director

Arcueil, 20 January 2026 – Laurent Gasse, 55, joined PHE (Parts Holding Europe) as Group Human Resources Director on January 5, 2026. In this role, he is a member of the Executive Committee and reports directly to the Group Chairman, Stéphane Antiglio.

Holding a postgraduate degree (DESS) and a PhD in labor law, as well as an Executive MBA from ESSEC, Laurent Gasse has spent the past thirty years in human resources, holding several senior management positions within industrial groups, notably within the Soufflet Group and the Eternit Group. Since 2021, he had been serving as Group Human Resources Director of Groupe Aéroports de Paris (ADP).

Stéphane Antiglio, Chairman of PHE, stated:

“We are delighted to welcome Laurent Gasse. His experience will be a major asset in supporting the continued development of PHE and its European expansion. Within a decentralized organization driven by a strong entrepreneurial spirit, he will also be tasked with bringing our corporate culture to life—one founded on strong values of teamwork and respect—and ensuring high-quality social dialogue with our more than 10,000 employees.”
