PHE Announces the Appointment of Lilian Leroux as Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Arcueil, June 10, 2026 – PHE (Parts Holding Europe) announces the appointment of Lilian Leroux, who joins the Group as Deputy Chief Executive Officer.

In his new role, Lilian Leroux will become a member of the Group’s Executive Management Team and will report directly to Stéphane Antiglio, Chairman of PHE.

An engineer by training and a graduate of INSEAD, Lilian Leroux has spent most of his career within the Faiveley Transport Group, which became part of the American group Wabtec in 2016. For more than ten years, he held senior executive positions in France and internationally, notably in the United Kingdom and Italy. As President of Wabtec Transit and CEO of Faiveley Transport, he oversaw operations across 30 countries and managed more than 14,000 employees. Most recently, he led Wabtec Group’s global strategy and sustainability activities.

With this appointment, PHE continues to strengthen its organization in order to support its growth momentum and prepare the next stages of its development.

Stéphane Antiglio, President of PHE, commented: “We are delighted to welcome Lilian Leroux to the Group. His extensive international experience, industrial background, strategic vision, and personal values, which are fully aligned with those of our Group, will be valuable assets in supporting PHE’s development in the years ahead.”
